

ISSUE: Drugs/Alcohol

Public Service Announcements- a series of PSA's on drugs, alcohol abuse, treatment programs, etc. Various lengths up to one minute. Affidavits attached.

Ask Washington: 5/3/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Guy Gugliotta, and Jeff Lean, authors of "Kings of Cocaine" and reporters with the Miami Herald. Discussion of the Medellin Cartel, jungle cocaine labs in Columbia, chemical companies and their relationships with drug kingpins, legalization of drugs, extradition of drug dealers, corruption of Panamanian and Bahamian governments by drug money, and addiction as a disease.

ISSUE: Finance/Economy

Ask Washington- 4/14/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Barry Kaye, Financial Advisor, talked about life insurance, estate taxes, irrevocable trust, and death benefits.

Ask Washington- 4/24/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Herb Stein, Economist, discussed the Gramm/Rudman Act, defense programs, the inflation rate, recession, income taxes, and the 1986 Tax Reform Act.

Ask Washington- 5/18/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Paul Hewitt, Retirement Policy Institute, spoke about retirement, pension plans, social security insurance vs. entitlements, medicare, upcoming crisis in Social Security as baby boomers mature, and taxes on the elderly.

Another Ann Arbor- 5/10/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Gail Perry, Financial Consultant, discusses personal savings and finance.

ISSUE: Local Interest Programming

Community Calendar- a weekly 4:30 program highlighting events happening in the TV-31 coverage area. Fund raisers, non-profit activities, university activities, fairs, shows, plays, blood drives, and school events are featured. Airt daily, ROS, affidavits attached.

Pet Showcase - a weekly 4:30 program produced with the Humane Society of Huron Valley featuring Carol Huston, director, and pet care tips. The adopt a pet program is also featured with one or more animals on the program each week. Airt daily, ROS, affidavits are included.

The Heart of the Matter- 4/5/89, 7PM, 60 minutes. A special program featuring women veterans and the ongoing problems they face.

The Language of the Heart- 4/12/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. A documentary on the Marcel Marceau World Center for Mime in Ann Arbor. In-house.

Full Circle: Shades of Wisdom, Successful Aging- 4/12/89, 8PM, 60 minutes. A documentary(in-house) on aging in our culture.

The Heart of the Matter- 5/31/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. An interview with Percy Danforth, local bones musician.

The Heart of the Matter- 6/7/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Ann Arbor's Mainstreet Comedy Showcase is featured.

The Heart of the Matter- 6/21/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Ruth Bordin, author of "A Pictorial History of Ann Arbor" is featured.

The Heart of the Matter- 6/28/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Rod Benson, President, Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce discusses the local business outlook for Ann Arbor and Washtenaw County into 1990.

Another Ann Arbor- 5/24/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Hurley Myers and Daryl Washington discuss parenting in the 1980's.

Another Ann Arbor- 5/31/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Lefiest Galimore and Seneca Harris are guests to talk about the local Big Brother/Big Sister program.

Another Ann Arbor- 6/7/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. The Ann Arbor Community Center and its role in the community.

ISSUE: Health and Safety

Ask Washington- 4/16/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Nancy Lombardi, Alzheimer's Association discussed the disease, senility, dementia, and Parkinson's Disease, causes, searching for a cure and long term health care.

Ask Washington- 4/7/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Sushma Palmer, Director Food and Nutrition Board, spoke about diet and nutrition, protien and fiber diets, preparation of food, cooking oils, breeding of farm animals to be more lean, lower cholesterol eggs, food additives, and vitamin supplements.

Ask Washington- 4/10/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Deborah Bright, Ph.D., behavior specialist, discussed interpersonal relations, dealing with criticism, and learning from criticism.

Ask Washington- 4/13/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Daniel Johnson, American Medical Association, spoke about thyroid treatments, smoking and alcohol, X-ray radiation danger, second opinions, and specific diseases.

Ask Washington- 4/25/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Robert Scheoplein, Ph.D., Toxicological Services, FDA, talked about "safe foods", how to reduce cancer through preparation of foods, FDA test markets for foods, natural cancer causing agents, sulfides and nitrates, and nitrites.

Ask Washington- 4/27/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Sheldon Hendler, author of "How to Win the Food Fight" discussed diet and nutrition, weight charts, red meat, dairy products, fat and sodium, content of food and cholesterol.

Another Ann Arbor- 4/26/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Discussion with Drs. Story and Nancy Davis about male-female relationships.

Heart of the Matter- 5/10/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Sandra Lanese, cancer patient, discussed Holistic Medicine.

Public Service Announcements- Various lengths up to 60 seconds, run daily ROS, subjects included seat belts, skin care, depression, better hearing, better vision, heart disease, diet, child abuse, prevent blindness, multiple sclerosis, Red Cross, arthritiis research, crime prevention, sports safety, cancer, smoking, AIDS, safe boating, affidavits are included.

MEMO

To: WIHT-TV Public File

From: Christopher Webb
General Manager
WIHT-TV

Re: First Quarter 1989 Issues/Problems
Programs List

Date: April 6, 1989

Following is a list of Issues/Problems that we feel are of importance to our community of license and have been given significant treatment by the programming of WIHT-TV. In depth reports on each subject are included with this report.

Environment

Personal health and safety

Education

Local public service

Finance/taxes

Other issues have been covered, but to a less significant degree. They are:

Drugs/alcohol abuse

Crime

Local elections

cw

ISSUE: Local Public Service

Community Calendar: Area events and happenings are updated each week in this 4:30 production. Blood drives, fund raisers, school board meetings, cultural events, and non-profit organizations are featured. Affidavits are attached.

Pet Showcase: Produced weekly with the Humane Society of Huron Valley, this 4:30 production features pet care tips, and the adopt-a-pet program sponsored by the Humane Society. Affidavits are attached.

Critical Issues-Election '89: 3/29/89, 7PM, 60 minutes. This in house production featured interviews with each of the Ann Arbor Mayoral candidates for this year's election. Also aired on Community Access TV to give greater local coverage.

ISSUE: Finance and Taxes

Another Ann Arbor: 2/15/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Gail Perry, financial consultant, discussed investing, IRA's and managing your money.

Another Ann Arbor: 2/22/89, 7PM, 30 minutes. Greg Gross, car salesman, spoke about buying new and used cars.

Ask Washington: 1/10/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Mark Bloom, CPA, discussed taxes and taxation, allowances, deductions, and common mistakes on tax returns.

Ask Washington: 1/20/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. David Gergen, US News, discussed taxes, raises for Congress, and President Bush.

Ask Washington: 1/24/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Senator Richard Shelby, discussed the Savings and Loan crisis, farm credit problem, fraud and taxpayer impact of a bailout.

Ask Washington: 1/26/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Laura Shaney, CPA, from Arthur Young and Co., discussed tax changes, small business taxes, social security and deductions.

Ask Washington: 1/30/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Harry Brown, investment advisor, spoke about the economic future, stocks, real estate, foreign investments, S&L crisis, gold, mutual funds, CD's, and brokerage houses.

Ask Washington: 2/17/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Al Golate, H&R Block, spoke about income tax preparation, pensions, health insurance, tax exemptions, capital gains and self employment income.

Ask Washington: 3/6/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Sally Gooding, IRS, discussed tax preparers, tax laws, deductions, dependents, and filling out forms.

ISSUE: Personal Health and Safety

Public Service Announcements: A series of PSA's up to one minute in length including child abuse, eye care, Multiple Sclerosis, Red Cross, arthritis, woodburning safety, weather safety, mental health, planned parenthood, crime, deafness, research, humane society, sports safety, cancer, Boy Scouts, closed captioning, disabled veterans, burn prevention, United Way, homeless Vietnam Veterans, heart disease,. Affidavits are attached.

The Heart of the Matter: 1/25/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Carol Jacobsen is guest to discuss her documentary program about the hazardous life of a prostitute. In house production.

The Heart of the Matter: 2/15/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Dave Glover discusses CPR techniques and training.

The Heart of the Matter: 3/22/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Hospice of Washtenaw is featured. They provide in-home care and family counselling to the terminally ill.

Ask Washington: 1/23/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Peter Miller discussed the Hilton Head diet, steroids, metabolism, cholesterol levels in meat.

Ask Washington: 3/9/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Melinda Carter, American Nurses Association, discussed the nursing shortage, hospital administrators, testing for nurses, and quality of care.

Ask Washington: 3/13/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Sheldon Goldberg, Association of Homes for the Aging, discussed changing demographics, long term health care, insurance, retirement, life expectancy, the politics of an aging population, and social security.

Ask Washington: 3/14/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Art Ulene, NBC Medical Reporter, discussed heart disease, cholesterol, product labeling, obesity, and medications for lowering cholesterol.

ISSUE: Education

The Heart of the Matter: 2/1/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Dr. Linda Albert from the Huntington Learning Center spoke about children's learning.

Ask Washington: 2/8/89, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Gerald Coles, psychologist, discussed learning disabilities, treatment and diagnosis, dyslexia, and neurological disorders.

Ask Washington: 2/24/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. John Paulos, author, spoke about illiteracy in math, math anxieties, teaching math, and career paths.

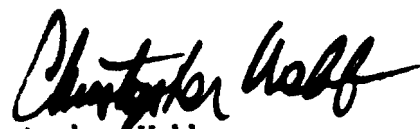

Ask Washington: 2/20/89 9AM 60 minutes. Lawrence Greener, Catholic Univ

ISSUE: Environment

Public Service Announcements: A series of PSA's of various lengths up to one minute. Subjects included recycling, litter, save our lands, national Arbor Day, soil conservation, greenhouse effect. Affidavits are attached.

Ask Washington: 3/16/89, 9AM, 60 minutes. Jim Fowler, Center for Wildlife Education, discussed endangered species, loss of animal habitat, rain forests and wetlands, conservation, the role of politics in protecting animals and the environment, and trade in animal parts and furs.

MEMO

To: Public File

From: Christopher Webb
General Manager
WIHT-TV

Re: Fourth Quarter 1988 Issues/Problems Date: January 9, 1989
Program List

During the fourth quarter of 1988 the following issues or problems to our community of license were addressed significantly through the programming of WIHT-TV. Following is a list of those issues and a more detailed listing of each issue on a separate report.

Personal Health and Safety

National Elections

Drugs/Alcohol Abuse and Related Problems

Education

Government

Local Public Service.

cw

Issue: Local Public Service

Community Calendar- This 4:30 feature is produce weekly and runs ROS each program day all year. Non-profit and community oriented events are featured at no charge. Events of local interest are always welcome. Affidavits are attached.

Pet Showcase- WIHT-TV and the Humane Society of Huron Valley co-produce this 4:30 weekly program. The show runs about three times each day. Pet care tips are given, as well as discussions of the Humane Society's adopt a pet program. Affidavits are included with this report.

Another Ann Arbor- 12/28/88, 7PM, 30 minutes. An interview with William Hampton, Assistant Director of Community Development.

Heart of the Matter- 10/5/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Robert Schroeder, Director of the Detroit Center for the Performing Arts.

Heart of the Matter- 10/19/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Jane Morgan, Director of the Community Grants Foundation, a non-profit group.

Heart of the Matter- 11/9/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. The U of M Faculty Women's Club is featured.

Heart of the Matter- 11/30/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Sharon Howell, in charge of foster parent placement at Boysville, a local home for troubled youth.

Issue: Drug/Alcohol Abuse and related programs

Public Service Announcements- A series of PSA's on this topic include spots on drinking and driving, drug use, crack, rehabilitation for abusers. Affidavits are attached.

Ask Washington- 10/24/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. David Westrate, Drug Enforcement Administration, spoke about Colombian Drug Lords, dangers to DEA agents, drug gangs, weapons used by agents and drug dealers, corruption of officers, seizure of drug assets, and drug education.

Ask Washington- 12/16/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Jim Aducci, Chairman, National Commission Against Drunk Driving, spoke about drunk driving week.

Issue: Government

Ask Washington- 11/8/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Gerald Mossinghoff and John Trattner, Center for Excellence in Government, discussed political appointments, likely cabinet members, appointments to civil service jobs, ambassadorships, minorities in high-level government jobs, and social security.

Ask Washington- 11/9/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Victor Kamber, President, P/M Consulting discussed the elections.

Ask Washington- 11/17/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Constantine Menges, Former National Security Advisor, spoke about foreign policy. National Security

Issue: Education

Ask Washington- 10/10/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Joseph Re, Octameron Assoc., discusses financing a college education.

Ask Washington- 10/17/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Lauro Cavazos, Secretary of Education, discussed funding for education, drugs in schools, training for teachers, Japanese vs. American systems, sex education, moral education, magnet schools, and class size.

Ask Washington- 10/19/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Robert Sorensen, President, National Association of State Directors of Vocational Education, spoke about the history, curriculum, teachers and funding of "vo-tech" education.

Ask Washington- 10/20/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Ernest Boyer, President, Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching discussed core curriculum, parents role in students education, Head Start, private vs. public education, discipline in schools, social issues, and alternative degrees.

Ask Washington- 10/21/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Keith Geiger, National Education Association, discussed teachers, hiring practices, training, and adult education.

Ask Washington- 11/7/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Bruce Carnes, Executive VP, ConSern, spoke about college loans, the cost of college, student loan defaults, and where the money goes.

Ask Washington- 11/10/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Gilbert Grosenvor, President, National Geographic Society, discussed the problems of geography in our schools, population growth and natural resources.

Another Ann Arbor- 10/12/88, 7PM, 30 minutes. In-house show featured an interview with Thomas Seaborn and Calvin O'Neal, youth counselors in the Ann Arbor school system.

Another Ann Arbor- 10/26/88, 7PM, 30 minutes. An interview with Linda Crawford, candidate for the Ann Arbor school board.

Another Ann Arbor- 11/9/88, 7PM, 30 minutes. Gail Barnes, music history teacher.

Heart of the Matter- 12/14/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. Featured on this in-house program is the Huntington Learning Center, an interview with Dr. Linda Albert about children's learning habits.

Issue: National Elections-

Public Service Announcements- A series of PSA's that encourage people to register to vote, and vote in the general election. Affidavits are included.

Ask Washington- 10/6/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Stuart Eizenstat, The American Agenda, discussed presidential transitions, Vice Presidential debates, the deficit, taxes, and the Savings and Loan Crisis.

Ask Washington- 10/14/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Donald Lambro, The Washington Times, discussed the debates, electoral votes, prison furlough programs, abortion, education, negative campaigning, media coverage, and the economy.

Ask Wasington- 10/25/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Fred Barnes, New Republic, discussed the electoral college vs. popular vote, one party states, dirty campaigns, furlough programs, Dan Quayle, and taxes.

Ask Washington- 11/1/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Mick Staton, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, discussed the non-presidential elections, incumbent's advantages, pay raises for Congress, and Lloyd Bentsen running for two offices.

Issue: Personal Health and Safety

Ask Washington- 10/11/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Dr. Richard Restak, Georgetown University, spoke about the mind, Alzheimer's disease, bio-feedback and the organization of the brain.

Ask Washington- 12/2/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Jesse Staff, M.D., discussed chronic fatigue syndrome.

Ask Washington- 12/20/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Henry Fishman, M.D., discussed colds, allergies and flu.

Ask Washington- 12/22/88, 9AM, 60 minutes. Robert Friedland, M.D., Georgetown University spoke about Alzheimer's Disease.

The Heart of the Matter- 11/2/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes. An in-house production, featured an interview with Tom Martin, Director, Michigan Department of Natural Resources, on the environmental bond issues on the November ballot. Both issues passed. and deal with environmental cleanup.

MEMO

To: Public File

From: Christopher Webb
General Manager
WIHT-TV

Re: Issues/Problems Programs list for third quarter 1988

Date: October 7, 1988

The following issues and problems of local importance were handled with significant coverage by the programming of WIHT-TV during the third quarter of 1988:

National elections

Drugs/substance abuse

Health and Safety

Employment/careers

Personal finance

Education

Local public service

Detailed reports of each subject are attached.

cw

ISSUE: Local Public Service

Community Calendar- a weekly 4.5 minute feature that highlights local events of interest. Fund raisers, concerts, plays, and other community oriented activities are included. There is no charge to the public for being included, although we do use discretion to keep "for profit" events out of the listings. Affidavits enclosed.

Pet Showcase- Weekly production made in our studio with the Humane Society of Huron Valley that features pets available for adoption and also tips on pet care. Runs 4.5 minutes, affidavits enclosed.

ISSUE: Health and Safety

Another Ann Arbor- 8/17/88, 7PM, 30 minutes, Dr. Freeman Martin talks about minority health issues.

Another Ann Arbor- 9/14/88, 7PM, 30 minutes, AIDS in the black community.

Public Service Announcements- a large number of PSA's with a wide variety of topics such as colon cancer, smoking, seat belts, polio, blindness, AIDS, and other health and safety oriented material. Affidavits are attached.

ISSUE: Health and Safety

Ask Washington- 7/8/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Dr. Marilyn Elgart, George Washington University, talked about melanoma, skin irritations, freckles and age spots, artificial tanning, Retin-A, and sun blocks.

Ask Washington- 7/11/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Willibald Nagler, M.D., New York Hospital, discussed rehabilitation and physical medicine, pinched nerves, Bell's Palsy, exercise and nerve damage.

Ask Washington- 7/14/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Jean Carpenter, nutritionist, spoke about food as medicine, the effects of niacin on cholesterol, hyperactivity and foods, anti-cancer chemicals in beans, broccoli, cabbage and brussels sprouts.

Ask Washington- 7/22/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Sally Squires, health writer, The Washington Post, discussed three food groups, family eating habits, motivating children to eat right, and exercising.

Ask Washington- 7/28/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Dr. John Potter, surgical oncologist, Georgetown University, discussed issues related to cancer. The role of smoking, drinking and diet were covered.

Ask Washington- 8/19/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Dr. Harvey Alter, discussed waste disposal, radioactive waste, landfills, incineration, recycling, cost of garbage collecting, and medical waste on beaches.

Ask Washington- 8/25/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Dr. Peter Miller, Ph.D., talked about how a healthy mind contributes to a healthy body, willpower, snacking, metabolism, diet pitfalls when traveling, carbohydrate diets, and protein diets.

Ask Washington- 9/1/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Jeanne Rhodes, author, spoke about metabolic rate changes for weight loss, eating habits, fad diets, and diet pills.

Ask Washington- 9/21/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Roger Fleming spoke about airline safety vs. highway safety, wind shear, airport congestion, air traffic controllers, and deregulation.

The Heart of the Matter- 7/6/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes, self defense for women is the topic.

The Heart of the Matter- 8/17/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes, Sandra Lanese is guest to discuss holistic medicine.

The Heart of the Matter- 8/31/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes, Mary Herc and Rev. John Harnish discuss the Hospice organization and its' services.

Another Ann Arbor- 7/27/88, 7PM, 30 minutes, Pat Coley, a counselor for minority youth is guest.

ISSUE: Drugs/Substance Abuse

Ask Washington- 7/7/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Paul Eddy, author of The Cocaine Wars, discussed the drug business, the Medellin Cartel, the American demand for illegal drugs, legalization of drugs, drug addiction and treatment, and the death penalty for drug dealers.

Ask Washington- 9/8/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Edwin Webb, American Pharmaceutical Association, discussed the responsibilities of the pharmacist in dispensing drugs, over the counter medications, drug reactions, drug combinations, and addictions.

Ask Washington- 9/19/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Dr. Frederick Goodwin, Health and Human Services Administration, spoke about drugs and peer pressure, drugs and sports, rehabilitation, incentives to handle drug problems, legalizing drugs, drug abuse and the family, drug abuse in the workplace, and testing.

The Heart of the Matter- 8/24/88, 7:30PM, 30 minutes, local production with Straight, Inc. as guest. This national organization is dedicated to helping teens with drug problems. Lucy Ann Lance is host.

Public Service Announcements- a series of PSA's on drug abuse, drinkin and driving, addiction, crack cocaine. Affidavits are attached.

ISSUE: National Elections

Ask Washington- 7/5/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Barry Sussman, pollster, discussed the different polling methods, people who vote/don't vote, manipulation of statistics, and how people view pollsters.

Ask Washington- 7/13/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Victor Kamber and Bradley O'Leary, political analysts, discussed the upcoming Democratic convention, unity, the chances of Democratic victory, Dukakis' chances against Bush, the VP selection process, and political endorsements.

Ask Washington- 7/25/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Jack Nelson, The Los Angeles Times, spoke about the Democratic convention, Jimmy Carter, Dukakis' independence from Jesse Jackson, Dukakis' lack of foreign policy experience, the abortion issue and Bush's choice for VP.

Ask Washington- 8/10/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Eleanor Clift, political correspondent, Newsweek, discussed the Republican convention, vice presidential selection, Republican platform, the "wimp" factor, dbates, negative campaigning, and the Iran/Contra scandal.

Ask Washington- 8/12/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Christopher Matthews, Washington bureau chief, San Francisco Examiner, discussed success in politics and the role of television in politics.

Ask Washington- 8/22/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, John Mashek, The Atlanta Journal and Constitution, recapped the Republican convention, candidates military service, debates, polls, and comared both conventions.

Ask Washington- 9/02/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Senator Richard Lugar(R-Indiana) discussed foreign policy matters facing the next president, selling military secrets, taxes and poverty.

Ask Washington- 9/9/88, 9AM, 60 minutes, Janet Brown, Executive Director, Commission on Presidential Debates, discussed debates in general, League of Women Voters, and the format of the debates.

Public Service Announcements- a series of 30 second PSA's that encorage people to register and vote in the election process. Affidavits attached.

MEMO

Christopher Webb

To: Public File

From: Christopher Webb
General Manager
WIHT-TV

Re: Second quarter 1988 Issues/Problems
Programs list

Date: July 7, 1988

The following issues and problems were given significant treatment by the programming of WIHT-TV during the second quarter of 1988. Individual reports for each category are included in this file.

Aging

Drug abuse/alcoholism

Personal health and safety

National elections

Local public service

Personal finance and taxes

Surrogate parenting

AIDS

CW

ISSUE: Personal Health and Safety

Public Service Announcements- seat belts, tornado safety, smoking, baby smoking, protect our lands, pre natal care, blindness, diabetes, juvenile diabetes, choking rescue, American Lung Association, cancer risk, runaway hotline, forest fire prevention, polio, nutrition, Covenant House, burn prevention, blood donation, child abuse, all of various lengths, ROS, affidavits attached.

Ask Washington- April 1, 9AM, 60 minutes. Sharon Romm, M.D., Georgetown University Hospital discussed plastic surgery, necessary vs. elective surgery, Retin-A for aging, breast reductions, and how to find a good surgeon.

Ask Washington- June 21, 9AM, 60 minutes. Bernie Seigal, M.D. discussed the benefits of positive thinking, self healing, and emotional training.

Ask Washington- June 17, 9AM, 60 minutes. Denise Austin, health and fitness instructor answered questions regarding excersising in the office, weight training, the difference between excersising and aerobics and the proper rate at which to excersise .